NAZI RAIDERS ROAR ACROSS COAST TO STAGE HIT-AND-RUN ATTACKS

BULLETIN
London, Oct. 21.—(P)—Germany's naval docks at Hamburg and Wilhelmshaven were heavily bombed last night and a large warship is believed to have been hit, the Air Ministry reported tonight.
By The Associated Press
London, Oct. 21.—Nazi air raiders, roaring across the coast above an unusually heavy anti-aircraft barrage, fanned out today in scattered hit-and-run attacks on British ships.
The German raids followed a 100-bomb-minute air raid by R.A.F. fighters on Nazi-held coastal bases opposite England, possibly supported by shell fire from long range guns and warships, pacing a far-flung British counter-offensive which extended to Berlin and southern Italy.
The repeatedly bombed bases again bore the brunt of the over-

HIGH COMMAND IN BERLIN CLAIMS SUCCESS IN UNDERSEA OFFENSIVE

Berlin, Oct. 21.—(P)—Numerous civilians were killed and injured and an apartment building in West Berlin was destroyed by British air raiders in a foray over the German capital last night, DNE, German news agency, reported today.
The news agency said the British dropped four explosive bombs on the city in addition to a shower of incendiaries.
Earlier reports said that only incendiary bombs fell on the capital in the attack which sent Berliners into air raid shelters for the first time in five nights and which

TURKS REPORT SPEEDING DEFENSE PLANS; BUCHAREST BLACKED OUT

Budapest, Hungary, Oct. 21.—Reports that Soviet Russian-Turkish military talks had been instituted and that Turkish military preparation was increasing along the strategic Dardanelles—gateway to the Near East—were heard today in the Balkans.
At the same time, Rumania inaugurated a blackout for Bucharest and the nearby oil fields.
Previous challenges to Germany were reiterated by the Turkish press, which also commented bitterly on Bulgaria's attitude as allegedly reflected in Sofia newspapers.
An editorial in Yeni Sabah said Turkey wants peace but prefers a bitter struggle to "peace gained dishonorably."
The newspaper also criticized an editorial in the Sofia newspaper Mir which reportedly suggested that German victory is inevitable and urged that small nations capitulate without resistance.
"If Germany comes south she may find Bulgaria bowed before her," Yeni Sabah said. "But when she arrives at the Turkish frontier she will meet her match, which is the reason she probably will not

Details of Damaging of U. S. Embassy In London During Recent Air Raid Revealed

Another bomb failed to explode immediately, but dug itself a deep pit about 50 feet from the front door. It went off a few hours later, blasting more windows and hurled soil and stones on to the roof and against the front wall.
The inside was not damaged and a spokesman said today "we're still open for business."
Ten persons were killed in the same raid when a big German bomb crashed near the Y. M. C. A. headquarters in great Russell street, blasting out doors and windows and blowing down inside partitions. Between 400 and 500 members sheltered in the gymnasium were not hurt.

WILLKIE BEGINS FINAL WEEKS OF BUSY CAMPAIGN

Republican Presidential Candidate Renews Suggestion That His Opponent Meet With Him On Same Platform in Buffalo

HEADS EAST TUESDAY

BY THEODORE F. KOOP
Aboard Willkie Train Enroute to Milwaukee, Oct. 21.—(P)—Wendell L. Willkie, attacking President Roosevelt's third term candidacy, declared today that under "one man rule" the first things to be curbed are labor unions, churches and education.
He quoted letters from Thomas Jefferson in support of his contention that the two term tradition should be preserved. Jefferson, he said, once wrote that should a president ever consent to be a candidate for a third term, "I trust he will be rejected on this demonstration of his ambitious views."
Willkie began the final two weeks of his presidential campaign by urging that President Roosevelt debate with him in Baltimore Oct. 30.

The Republican nominee, who two months ago challenged the chief executive to a series of debates on national issues, said last night he had been told that his backers obtained the only sizeable hall for that date.
The Baltimore talk will be one of the last campaign addresses given by Willkie, who was traveling through Wisconsin today preparatory to a speech in Milwaukee tonight. The latter is expected to be addressed primarily to young voters.
The nominee will speak in Chicago tomorrow night, and then (Turn to Page Nine)

PROBE ELECTION FRAUD CHARGES

Philadelphia, Oct. 21.—(P)—The December federal grand jury, summoned a month before its usual time, was instructed today by Judge William H. Kirkpatrick to make a "searching, impartial, and fearless" investigation of "possible" election law violations in eastern Pennsylvania.
The request for the inquiry was made by U. S. District Attorney Gerald A. Gleason, who said he had "complaints in affidavit form" disclosing alleged fraud in several counties within the jurisdiction of the court.
Charles A. Glouner, of Pottsville, was appointed foreman of the panel of 15 men and 6 women. Gleason said that "investigations (Turn to Page Nine)

Party Leaders Look to Visits of Nominees To Touch Off Campaign Drives in the State

Return to Pennsylvania This Week of G. O. P. Standard Bearer and the Chief Executive Highlights Program for the Home-Stretch

CANDIDATES ACTIVE

Harrisburg, Oct. 21.—(P)—Republican and Democratic party leaders alike looked today to the return visits of Wendell Willkie and President Roosevelt this week to start their respective state campaigns down the home-stretch at a fast pace.
Both candidates came into the state earlier in the fall.

Willkie will speak from the rear platform of his special train at Erie and Sharon on Thursday, and make a similar appearance at Scranton Friday before going on to Wilkes-Barre for a major speech that night.
The president will go Wednesday to Philadelphia's convention hall—where his Republican opponent won nomination in June—to (Turn to Page Nine)

STILL NO CLUE TO MURDERER OF CORY MAN

Claremore, Okla., Oct. 21.—(P)—A state officer was assigned today to aid in investigation of the slaying of Blair A. Barnes, Long Beach, Calif., whose slashed body was found in an abandoned coal pit last Thursday.
The investigator, A. J. West, said he would work with Sheriff Tom Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Barnes, Cory, Pa., visited a Nowata, Okla., mortuary yesterday and identified clothing worn by the victim as that of their son.
Deputy Sheriff Henry Skidmore said the elder Barnes, a Cory city councilman, also identified a cedar chest and its contents as belonging to his son.
A farmer and his son were arrested after the chest was found at their farmhouse. The farmer was released, but his son, who told officers of finding the chest along the roadside, still is held for questioning. No others were held in the case.
Skidmore said Barnes' blood-stained car, found on a Tulsa street October 8, would be brought here and residents of the area in which Barnes' body was found would be asked to view it in an effort to trace its movements.
A heavy knife which fitted the seven stab wound in Barnes' chest was found near the murder scene yesterday by Police Chief Roy Carver, of Chelsea. Two of Barnes' (Turn to Page Nine)

FLOOD TOLL IS REPORTED HIGH

Vichy, France, Oct. 21.—(P)—More than 100 persons today reported dead or missing today and officials estimated damage of a billion francs as a result of torrential rains and floods which forced thousands to flee their homes in French Catalonia.
The franc no longer is quoted but before the German occupation of Paris it ranged from 1.73 cents to 2.26 cents this year.
Details of the weekend disaster became known in Vichy only today as telephonic communication with Perpignan, capital of the stricken region, was restored. Perpignan itself had been evacuated (Turn to Page Nine)

PROCESS WILL TAKE 12 HOURS

Selective Service Director, After Conference at Executive Mansion, Announces Roosevelt Will Pull First Number, With Ceremony Taking Place In Interdepartmental Auditorium Adjacent to Labor Quarters

MOST OF BOARDS IN PENNSYLVANIA READY

Washington, Oct. 21.—(P)—President Roosevelt will draw the first number in the draft lottery at noon on October 29.

Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, selective service director, made the announcement today after a conference with the chief executive.
Dykstra said the drawing would be held in the Interdepartmental Auditorium adjacent to the Labor Department building in Washington with the chief executive pulling the first number from the glass goldfish bowl used in the World War draft.

Dykstra said they did not discuss whether Mr. Roosevelt would be blindfolded and that additional details would be announced later by his organization. But the draft numbers, he said, will be enclosed in the same blue capsules used in the last draft. He showed reporters one of them, with a small tag bearing the number 258—the first in the lottery in World War days.
Dykstra said he did not know who would take over the bulk of the drawing after Mr. Roosevelt had selected the first number, but that he thought the process would take at least 12 hours.

The numbers drawn will correspond with serial numbers assigned to more than 16,500,000 men who registered for selective military service last week.

The order in which the numbers are drawn will determine the order in which the men in each draft area are called for service.

Harrisburg, Oct. 21.—(P)—State officials reported today most of the draft boards in Pennsylvania are ready to handle conscription of men eligible for the peacetime military training program.
Leroy V. Greene, assistant secretary to Governor James, said (Turn to Page Nine)

SUSPECT TELLS STRANGE TALE IN MURDER CASE

Doyelstown, Oct. 21.—(P)—State police tried today to piece together a clear picture of the slaying of Edward Lee, prominent lumberman, from the rambling story told by a man charged with murder who insisted another was responsible.

The body of Lee, 60-year old Sullivan county lumberman, was found last Thursday on a lonely forest road near his Fountainville home. He had left his home by automobile on Monday.

Yesterday Privates Harry Christ and L. A. Emery, following up a tip garnered in a Philadelphia Salvation army hotel, arrested Harold E. Frisbie, 33, at his Fountainville home near here as he was bathing an injured foot. He told them he had been shot in the scuffle between Lee and an assailant, the officers declared.

In the farm yard the officers said, was Lee's car, the cushions and the floor stained.

From Frisbie's bride of four months, the officers said they learned that the carpenter returned home in the car last Tuesday saying he had obtained it from a brother, and gave her $108 which he said he had received from a mortgage on a Towanda house.

Frisbie, they said, told this story:
At Trenton, N. J., several weeks ago he met a man employed at the Lakehurst, N. J., airplane (Turn to Page Nine)

PRESIDENT PREPARES FOR TRIPS

Press Secretary Declares That Rather Than Be in Baltimore October 30, On Night Opponent Is Scheduled, Chief Executive will Probably Be Speaking at the Academy of Music in Brooklyn, N. Y.

IS NOT ACCEPTING DEBATE CHALLENGE

Washington, Oct. 21.—(P)—President Roosevelt, a secretary said today, is not accepting Wendell L. Willkie's offer to share an auditorium with him in Baltimore October 30.

Stephen Early, the president's press secretary, said that rather than in Baltimore or Washington on that date, Mr. Roosevelt probably would speak at the Academy of Music Hall in Brooklyn, N. Y.

As a matter of fact, Early said, all the chief executive's campaign plans, or any part of them, are subject to cancellation should the world situation suddenly become even more critical.

Radio time, Early reported, has been reserved by the Democratic committee for 9:45 to 10 p. m., October 23, when Mr. Roosevelt speaks in Philadelphia; 10 to 11 p. m., October 28, when he talks at a political rally in Madison Square Garden, New York; 10:15 to 11 p. m., October 30, for the address, probably in Brooklyn. STORK GETS AID FROM PARK GUARD IN PHILA.

Philadelphia, Oct. 21.—(P)—An ambulance racing against the stork caught fire today and Park Guard Frank Jonowiak delivered a six-and-a-half pound son to Mrs. Josephine Vanderpump, 23, inside the vehicle while volunteers were putting out the flames.

Fire shot from the hood as the ambulance rushed the woman along Roosevelt boulevard toward Frankford hospital in a 40-mile trip from South Langhorne, where she had stopped overnight in a tourist cabin.

Driver W. R. Watson pulled the vehicle to the roadside and, assisted by passersby, turned a fire extinguisher on the flames. A hurry call brought Jonowiak.
Mother and baby were transferred to another ambulance and taken to the hospital. Both were reported none the worse for the experience.

Three National Parks In State Visited By Over 700,000 During the 1940 Travel Year

Washington, Oct. 21.—(P)—More than 700,000 persons visited three national parks in Pennsylvania during the 1940 travel year, ended Sept. 30, Director Newton R. Dury of the National Park Service announced today.

Gettysburg national military park and cemetery was the major attraction, drawing 629,832 persons, compared with 608,125 for 1939. Fort Necessity drew 71,457, a decline of approximately 2,000 from the preceding year, and 2,364 visited Hopewell Village. No 1939 figures were given for the village.
Dury said in his report a new attendance record of 14,741,853 was established for the nation's parks in 1940, a gain of more than a million over the preceding year and 500,000 over 1938, the previous peak.

AMUSEMENTS

Hailed by critics as the best picture in which she has ever appeared, Deanna Durbin's eighth production, Universal's "Spring Parade" today at the Library Theatre.

Produced by Joe Pasternak and directed by Henry Kostler, the picture presents a more mature Deanna than in any of her previous offerings, and a more romantic story than has been her lot in her first seven productions.

Deanna sings four numbers in the offering, three of them from the pen of the famous Viennese, Robert Stolz, who composed, among other offerings, the famous "Two Hearts in Three-Quarter Time." The fourth, "Blue Danube Dream," is an adaptation by Hans Saller.

Supporting the star are such players as Robert Cummings, Mischa Auer, Henry Stephenson, Butch and Buddy, Anne Gwynne, Walter Catlett, S. Z. Sakall and many others.

PLAN MEETING OF BUNDLES FOR BRITAIN GROUP

Several important announcements are to be made this evening at the business meeting of Warren Chapter, Bundles for Britain, to be held at eight o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. activities building.

According to Miss Gene Alden Walker, local chairman, there will be a sample shipment of yarn to be distributed to those who wish it, as well as a display of knitted garments and articles of the type to be made by the local workers.

In addition, there will be on display a number of the special articles which will be placed on sale Saturday at the silver benefit tea to be given at the Woman's Club by Mrs. Harry A. Logan. These include vanities, cigarette cases, official emblems and pins and other articles.

It is hoped that there will be a record attendance this evening, since interest in this movement is obviously increasing.

Church of Tomorrow Has Second Meeting With Many Present

"Church of Tomorrow," as a new experimental youth project is styled, held its second session last evening at the First Presbyterian church. This church, conducted by and for youth of senior and intermediate age, held its organization meeting following last evening's session, and elected the church officers for the coming year.

It is the expectation of Dr. Harold C. Warren, pastor of the church, that this "Church of Tomorrow" will meet a demand for a more vital participation for the youth of the congregation, and give practical experience in the conduct of church affairs by them.

Last evening the young women met and organized a Church of Tomorrow Young Women's Aid Society, with Margaret Bathurst as president; Barbara Lesser, secretary-treasurer; Shirley Allen, chairman of social committee; Joey Hubbs, publicity.

The Church of Youth congregation elected the following elders: Joe Cannon, Richard Guild, Fred Peterson, John Swick, David Correll, Larry Krespan, Don Norris, Charles Kilm, Bob Wilder and Douglas Williams. Also the following board of trustees: Don McComas, president; Bill Genge, Cliff Graham, Paul Graham, David Deardorf, Virgil Brasington, Charles Hubbs, Fred Hoppe, Copeland Schmidt, Richard Guild was appointed head usher for the Church of Tomorrow.

The Church of Tomorrow services are brief, beginning at 7 p. m. Adults have attended in large numbers, but the activities and business of this church will be entirely by the young people.

Dr. Warren's brief message last evening was "Personal Influence." Joe Cannon presided, and Joanne Whitehill gave the scripture. Junior choir was led by Miss Hulda Angermann, with Mrs. Lafferty as accompanist. Thomas Conrad's solo was very greatly appreciated.

Bear Hunting May Require More Expert Riflemen This Year

Bear hunting, the sport for expert riflemen, may call for a little sharper eye and quicker trigger action this year than usual.

The State Game Commission has concluded from its reports that forage for the black bears which roam the northern tier of counties along the New York state line has not been so good this season.

This situation is apt to make the lumbering but fast bear a little touchy and more wary than ever, once the riflemen scour the forests on their annual four-day crack at big game. The short season opens November 18.

There are indications that the season will be "at least as good and possibly better" than last year when 535 were bagged, said Seth Gordon, executive director of the commission.

SHEFFIELD TWP. GIVEN STREETS BY C. P. L. FIRM

Sheffield, Oct. 19.—Ownership of several heretofore privately owned streets of the village was conferred on the township this week when the former owner, the Central Pennsylvania Lumber Company, deeded the roadways to the community. Signatories to the transaction were Frank Handey, vice president, and Donald Brooks, president of the C. P. L. Co., and the three township supervisors: C. W. Brainer, J. J. Wolfe and J. D. Pratt.

Streets included in the transfer were First, Second and Third Mill streets. Front street, Shanty street, Houghton street and Central avenue. For those who may wonder a bit as to where some of the streets are it is explained that Front street is the one more familiarly known as Keystone avenue. Houghton street is the one known as Red Row, and Central avenue is an adjunct of First Mill street. The houses on it at one time having been the property of the now defunct Standard Kindling Wood Co.

TO SPONSOR PARADE

The Sheffield District Committee, Boy Scouts of America, has announced that it will sponsor the Halloween parade for school children this year, continuing the annual event the committee conceived and inaugurated a few years ago. Plans for the parade are being formulated and will be announced later.

FORMER RESIDENT

Funeral services are being held this afternoon in DuBois for Mrs. Joseph Uber, a former Sheffield resident, who died at the family home in DuBois Wednesday night after a brief illness.

It takes a year of intensive training to enable an aviator to be qualified as a pursuit pilot. At least 750 hours of flight training are necessary before a man is qualified to begin on bombers.

HAND PRESSED CLOTHES WEAR MUCH LONGER

You'll find it will pay you to take your clothes to James Mortenson, tailor at 225 Penna. Ave. W., in Warren—that is, if you appreciate the value of economy because unquestionably your clothes will wear much longer if they are hand-pressed than by machinery. Mr. Mortenson, who has been a tailor in this city for years, does all his pressing by hand. Not a bit of machinery is used. This method keeps the brightness and lustre of the clothes, does away with having a "shiny" suit and gives longer life to the garment.

Of course it takes a little longer for the pressing job, but there is no extra charge for this. Prices here are reasonable when quality and workmanship is considered.

This is true for both men's and women's clothing and you will be surprised how differently you will look in a hand-pressed suit than one done by machinery. The lapels of the coat can be done nicer, there is a distinctiveness about the appearance of the garment immediately you put it on that anyone can detect.

But make the experiment yourself. Take one suit to Mr. Mortenson's tailoring establishment at 225 Penna. Ave. W., and see for yourself what a vast difference hand pressing makes in it.

And you'll be saving money because your clothes will last longer with no wear and tear of heavy machinery to stamp the life out of them.

Mr. Mortenson also does ladies' and gents' tailoring.

Warren Hospitals Are Approved by American College of Surgeons At Annual Conference Held in Chicago

Both the Warren General Hospital and the Warren State Hospital were included among 2,806 hospitals which have been approved by the American College of Surgeons in the United States, Canada and a few other countries, it was announced this morning at the opening of the 23rd annual hospital standardization conference in Chicago in conjunction with the clinical congress of the American College of Surgeons.

In addition to general approval, the state hospital at North Warren also was approved for residencies or fellowships by the council on medical education and hospitals, American Medical Association.

In making the announcement, Dr. Irvin Abell, of Louisville, chairman of the board of regents, and head of the advisory committee on health recently appointed to assist the council of national defense, declared:

"Health is always an important essential to the well-being of nations, and in a time of gearing for defense, it is a vital issue. Hence the fact that we have 2,800 hospitals in the United States and Canada that are fortresses of defense against disease and disability, because they are adequately armed and manned for the type of battle in which they are engaged, should give our people and our governments assurance that in this field we are well embarked on a preparedness program. Yet since the approved hospitals represent not quite half of the total number, there is no occasion for complacency, but rather for intensified effort to improve hospitals generally."

Dr. Malcolm T. MacEachern, Associate Director of the College and in charge of its hospital activities, called attention to the fact that in less than a quarter of a century the number of approved hospitals has grown from 89, the total on the first list issued in 1918, to 2,806, which is evidence of remarkable progress, and added:

"Ten million people were cared for in our hospitals last year, meaning that one out of every thirteen individuals in the United States and Canada was at some time during 1939 in a hospital. Three million underwent major surgery. More than one million, or half of all births, occurred in hospitals. That is why communities and the medical profession are concerned about the standards of hospitals, since so many lives are entrusted to their care. Hospitals are engaged in a never ending conflict against disease and death, and we must strengthen the fortifications to enable them to cope with the increasing problems incident to conscription in the United States and war service in Canada.

The Minimum Standard can with the help of the community be met by every hospital that is conscientiously trying to serve its patients. The requirements, briefly stated, are:

1. Modern physical plant, assuring the patient safety, comfort, and efficient care.
2. Clearly defined organization, duties, responsibilities, and relations.
3. Carefully selected governing board with complete and supreme authority.
4. Competent, well trained superintendent responsible to the governing board.
5. Adequate and efficient personnel, properly organized and competently supervised.
6. Organized medical staff of ethical, competent physicians and surgeons.
7. Adequate diagnostic and therapeutic facilities under competent medical supervision.
8. Accurate, complete medical records, readily accessible for research and follow-up.
9. Regular group conferences of the administrative staff and of the medical staff for reviewing activities and results so as to maintain a high plane of scientific efficiency.
10. A humanitarian spirit the primary consideration being the best care of the patient."

Other hospitals in this district which were approved included: Bradford hospital, Bradford; Hamot Hospital, St. Vincent's Hospital, Erie; Franklin Hospital, Franklin; Community Hospital, Kane; Meadville City Hospital, Meadville; Meadville, Oil City; Elk County General Hospital, Ridgeway.

FURNITURE MARKET

More than four hundred furniture men registered at the Jamestown Furniture Exposition yesterday, the first day of the 1940 fall exhibit, setting a new record, according to market officials. The largest number who have registered previously on an opening day is 300. All who visited the furniture market on the first day were enthusiastic concerning the exhibits, it was reported.

TONNAGE DOWN

While the barging of steel and gasoline increased, tonnage of shipments out of Pittsburgh's three river ports dropped during September, according to U. S. Army engineers. Tonnage on the Allegheny decreased 75,100 tons to 422,700; on the Monongahela, 94,600 to 2,584,600; on the Ohio, 16,800 to 1,395,000. ### BUNDLES FOR BRITAIN

The Warren chapter of Bundles for Britain, Inc., which was organized last week, will meet this evening at eight o'clock at the Y. W. C. A.

This organization was formed last December by Mrs. Wales Latham, New York society woman, to supply woolen garments, surgical and medical instruments, ambulances and other necessities to the war-stricken people of Great Britain. It has over 250 branches scattered across the country, and now enrolls an average of twenty new branches a week, the Warren chapter being one of the latest to be listed by Mrs. Latham.

Formation of the chapter provides Warren people, interested in extending humanitarian assistance to innocent victims of bomb-shelled Britain, in a manner that will not duplicate or conflict with any other agency.

There are doubtless many in Warren who will welcome an opportunity to affiliate with such an activity that will enable them to help to provide aid and supplies to war sufferers.

PROSPECTS FOR DRAFTEES

Secretary of War Stimson stated last week that the first 30,000 draftees will be called on or about November 18th, indicating that it won't be long before the first trainees from Warren county will be headed for army camps and twelve months of military service.

After the first conscripts leave they will be followed month by month by others, many from this section.

While housing facilities in some army corps areas are said to be far below actual requirements, it is believed that much of the shortage will be corrected before January.

Men called for this draft army will find regulations a bit different than in the last. Then fellows with flat feet were rejected. Not so this time. Army officials say they will be used in non-combatant divisions.

There will be more scientific classification of all recruits, dispatches from Washington stated Saturday, so that a skilled mechanic won't be wasting his time as mess cook.

Man power will be used to better advantage under this plan than it was twenty years ago. There will be a niche somewhere for practically everyone who is called to camp.

One of the oldest and most highly respected Italian citizens of the community was laid to rest this morning when services were held for Frank Williams, Sr., 15 Lucy street. Mr. Williams was among the earliest Italian residents of the west side. Having resided there for over a half century, he had been greatly devoted to his family and neighbors and was of invaluable assistance to the Italian population of the community.

For those who enjoy oratorical fireworks over the air waves the next two weeks offer the best assortment of high-powered platform artists ever presented, including President Roosevelt and Wendell Willkie.

The Merchants Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce plans to ballot again on the question of closing all day November 11th. We'll be doing it sooner or later—why not start this year?

With both home teams scoring victories in close and exciting games, it was a great weekend for football fans of the area.

Man sentenced death in Germany also had his citizenship taken away, which probably will be in his favor when he gets to either of the two places.

A checkup on some of the straw votes, polls and crystal gazers seems to indicate that both Roosevelt and Willkie will be elected week after next!

Now that the leaves are about disfigured of it begins to look as if it might be wise to begin polishing up the snow shovel.

Confidentially, the Dopesters Are in the Bag

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—The glittering displays that make Fifth Avenue the window-shoppers' paradise are miraculously coming to life.

For years the strollers from every corner of the globe who swarm the Avenue night and day could, by strict ruling, see nothing but inanimate objects in the windows.

But now the displays have suddenly blossomed out with motion, sound and human beings, and undoubtedly soon will approximate Broadway floor-shows.

The taboo on action in Fifth Avenue windows was imposed long ago by the Fifth Avenue Association—the merchants' governing body—because it feared that unrestricted competition for eye-catching displays would degrade the swanky thoroughfare to a Coney Island.

Having decided that the merchants of course immediately set about to outdo each other with spectacular static displays.

The leading stores wound up by hiring stage designers to produce exhibits that would attract attention from the other fellow's window, and the trend hit a hysterical peak one night when the surrealist artist Salvador Dali and a fur-lined butch somehow crashed through the plate-glass window of a bizarre display he was arranging.

That was as far as the stores could go in that direction, so they plunged into a frantic scramble for trick ways of circumventing their own inanimate-display rule.

A cosmetic firm put a tall, gushing colored fountain in its second-story window. Technically it was action, and there were a lot of raised eyebrows among other Avenue tenants, but it was relatively conservative and not on the street floor, and would have cost a lot to rip out, so they let it stay.

That started the ball rolling. Another second-floor establishment smuggled in a life-size scantily-clad mechanical drum-major who caught every male eye—and got away with it. A department store at Christmas put swinging bells in its ground-floor window, with amplifiers to carry their clanging out to the sidewalk.

Finally the other day a big department store, swept off its feet by style-show enthusiasm decided to go overboard and put living models in its window.

Then at the last minute it had qualms, so the store hit on a unique compromise. They borrowed from peep-shows the girl-in-the-fishbowl illusion, in which the image of a real person behind the scenes is projected by lenses and appears dwarfed in a globe a few inches from the spectator's nose.

From there it's obviously only a step—a few months in terms of Fifth Avenue conservatism—to putting real living people in the windows.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1920

Twenty-five motorists were arrested on the state highway between Warren and Russell Sunday, for speeding. One of the amusing features in connection with the "raid" is the fact that on the door of the office of Justice of the Peace Sparks at North Warren, where the offenders were taken, are found the words, "Welcome, Walk In."

The road in Warren county, Glade township, known as the extension of Park street, built by the supervisors, has been inspected by H. O. Whelock, assistant engineer of townships, and pronounced satisfactory.

The ballots for the forthcoming election are all completed and ready for delivery. The number of regular ballots is 30,000 and there are 10,000 sample or specimen ballots.

Mrs. F. H. Colt will be hostess to the members of the Research Club tomorrow evening at her home on Onondaga avenue. Mrs. C. W. Benjamin will talk on American Art.

Mrs. Charles T. Conarro entertained the Thursday Bridge Club today at the Woman's Club.

CURLS REPLACE SNAILS. The Great Buddha at Kamakura, Japan, wears 830 curls upon its majestic head. These curls, according to legend, represent snails which once crawled upon the original deity to shelter his bald head from the sun.

A new auto paint, specially designed for car owners who have no garage and leave their car out the year round, is reported to remain good for four or five years.

In 1930

The first snow of the season arrived in Warren Sunday night between ten and eleven o'clock, following a decided drop in temperature Saturday. Members of the crew of a train between Buffalo and Warren report that at least 1,000 automobiles were stalled in the snow between Dunkirk and Buffalo.

The Warren County Ministerial Association met yesterday and made plans for the union Thanksgiving service to be held this year in Trinity Memorial church. Rev. Harold McCurdy, pastor of Grace Methodist church, will preach the sermon.

A. L. Schellhammer, W. R. Schellhammer, K. M. Andrews, W. C. Bennett, H. G. Eaton, Eugene Cooney, William Cooney, W. C. Heasley and A. C. Kirberger have returned from Oklahoma where they visited the oil fields of that territory and inspected companies in which they are interested.

Forty ladies enjoyed a missionary tea at the home of Mrs. William E. Yeager yesterday. She was assisted by Mrs. P. W. Pressel, Mrs. J. B. Leidig, Mrs. Lois Koebler and Mrs. Robert Chalmers.

Much enthusiasm has been shown in the "Tom Thumb" Fair to be held Friday evening at the Presbyterian church.

STORIES IN STAMPS

Nazis Forget History In Stamp Propaganda

GERMANY is using stamps to brand the expansion of the British empire as "an endless succession of robberies." A recent propaganda release, published in United States, uses a British Honduras issue of the coronation series to testify to the illegality of Britain's claim upon the Central American possession. A stamp of the same series is reproduced above.

"British Honduras' real name is Belize and it belongs to Guatemala," the publication announces. But history tells a different story. British settlement in Honduras began with the coming of shipwrecked sailors or buccaneers in 1638, followed by settlers in 1662. Spanish claims to the area provoked battles, ending in 1798 with repulse of Spanish attack.

Britain's claims rest more upon undisputed possession than upon conquest. British control was reaffirmed, after the break-up of Spain's American empire, in treaties with Mexico (1826) and with Guatemala (1859 and 1893).

The publication is correct, however, in calling the colony Belize. The area was formerly known by that name.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—Here I'm sitting at a typewriter again and I'm groaning. There ought to be a law again' vacations.

"Heigh-ho, heigh-ho, it's off to work we go," I mutter cheerily this a.m. The note of cheer is as phoney as the bounce in my step. "Now for a little glammer, now for some fun, now for a fresh new look at dear little Hollywood, the place the tourists come to. Heigh-ho-HUM!"

Better make the start painless. I say to me. What's the most painless business in Hollywood? Seeing Mary Martin? Right! So I drag over to Paramount, to the "Love Thy Neighbor" set. There's Mary, the Texas honey. She's done up in a white evening dress of something-or-other, and she's as natural as they come and twice as sweet.

We chat about "Rhythm on the River" and she tells about going to Del Mar where they had the preview, and about what a time she had getting in the Bing Crosby box because the attendant thought she was a cracker. Afterward she met Dixie Lee, who's Mrs. Bing. It was the first time they'd met and Dixie laughed and said, "You know, we haven't met but I feel as if we had because it was MY hand you were holding all through the picture."

Mary says she is that nervous at previews and she's good copy and I feel set up and I say to me, "Here's a good column." But then Mary has to go to work and I sink again and think about beach and sunshine and cool breezes and think maybe I'll do that story next week. . . .

THERE'S Mark Sandrich, the director, and I say hello and argue politics with him and this is fun because Mark is a good, if illogical arguer. I know he's illogical because he thinks he's right whereas I know I'm right. But he has to go to work and that leaves me having to go to work too.

"Let's be Spartan about this thing," I tell me—and that means going to Warner Bros. where it's hotter than a movie star reading and they commit to yarn. So I trickle in, and there's Brenda Marshall, doing "East of the River" and looking sweet in Mama Raviola's wedding gown. Sweet and hot. She's in her dressing room and the wedding gown has four petticoats underneath, and the room is baking in the sun. I think Brenda's a story but I think I'll get to that next week, too. . . .

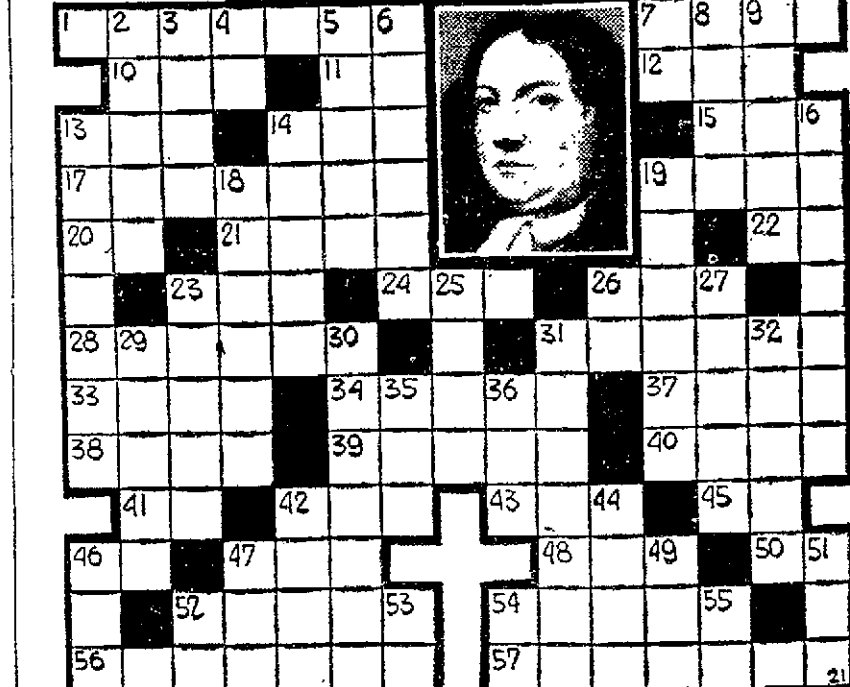

OVER on the Frank Capra set Barbara Stanwyck is doing an undressing scene. Undressing scenes are good copy, and I think how many tourists would give a fortune to be able to report back home they saw Stanwyck doing an undressing scene, and I yawn and say hello to Gary Cooper. Gary talks about vacations and going to the mountains and the only way to sleep while camping is in a sleeping bag. He grins diabolically and announces that he, being free for the day, is going swimming.

A nice press agent suggests I join him on location at Palm Springs for "High Sierra" and do a story on how hot it is there. I thank him kindly for the tip instead of caressing his cranium with the nearest arc-light. "Thank you, but I have no love of adventure," I say mildly, for I am already trailing our Gary who is going swimming.

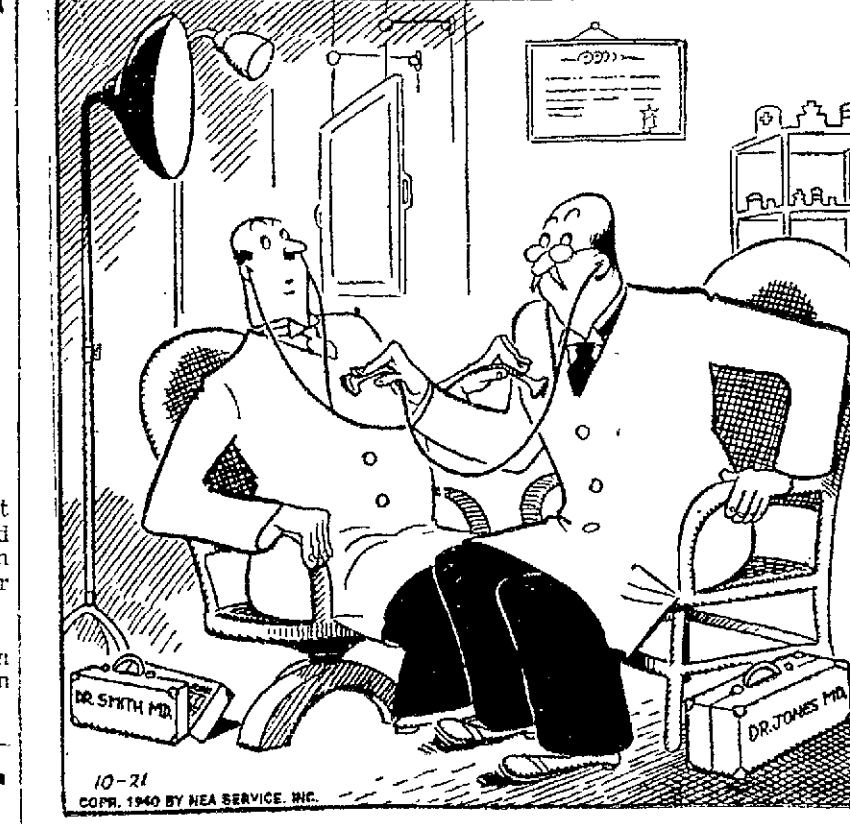

And if you'll excuse it, please, so am I. It's the only good idea I've had all day.

THE ROAD TO SHANI LUN

YESTERDAY. Once more beautiful Lynn Britton has escaped from Temu Durin, who is taking her to marry the Mongolian Prince of Shani Lun. But once more Temu has captured her, and now he is holding her prisoner in an odd apartment over a Chinese river, while a revolution is in progress outside.

Chapter 21 Battle Of Wills

"BUT I do keep you safe, Tara Lynn," Temu repeated wiping the scratch on his chin with a fresh handkerchief.

Lynn pushed back the hair from her forehead. She felt as disheveled as if she'd been in a football scrimmage — and something else. She felt a kind of despair that he could come out of the fracas calm and cool and apparently unmoved when she had been so acutely aware of him—his touch, the pressure of his arms.

"Safe even from yourself," she murmured. His eyes flashed at that and she caught a glimpse of passion quickly repressed. "I think," he answered, a little smile about his lips, "that I shall have to invent a machine for shaking you when you need it."

She laughed a little at his indirect tribute to herself, sat back, and asked maliciously, "Did your men make a pretty good haul on the boat now that you have gone in for piracy?"

"Except for you," he remarked, lighting a cigarette after she had refused one. "All valuables will be returned." He sat down. "I have made many people happy. The tour manager has secured his wish and his clients their excitement without any consequences. The Wallaces have been given an invitation to visit Shani Lun next spring. And a troupe of Chinese actors have received the best pay of their lives for putting on a play most unusual for the Chinese theatre."

"So, that explains the dwarf and his friends and the sampan you signalled? How simple and trusting I am, Temu! I never expect intrigue until it is too late. I think all around a subject and then miss the point. I seem to have no defenses against cupid-ity."

He grinned. "And, yet, when I tell you the truth about your destiny and disbelieve me. Oh, well," he rose, "you make life dramatic. You enlarge every experience with imagination. Living with you would never be dull." He came and sat down on the arm of her chair. She rested her head on his hand on the back of the chair and smiled up at him.

"I'm at least grateful for these kind words."

"What more do you want?" he demanded. "Another conquest? A chance to say 'yes' and 'no' to yet one more man?"

"Perhaps," she agreed. "Are you afraid?"

He bent towards her. "No, you don't," Tara Lynn. There is no alternative for you. I can't tell you these things; I must take you to Delun and prove them. You belong to the Prince, and," he added in a deeper, slower tone, "to him alone. Shercock says that in heaven you are one spirit."

Temptation

SHE drew away a little frightened, dismayed before his persistence and his firm intention. He could sit her beside her, an arm under her head and say these things. Then she noticed a faint trembling in the hand that rested on his knee. She raised her head and steeled herself to express the thought that was in her mind.

"Temu, when you talk to me about the Prince, I have the most wicked temptations."

He gazed at her for a moment, color mounting in his cheeks to his temples. Then he looked down at her fingers picking nervously at her handkerchief.

"Naturally," he said slowly, "a goddess is subject to stronger temptations than an ordinary woman. You happen to be in a queer state of mind, Tara Lynn. I am not deceived. You are trying to prove your strength and my weakness. Otherwise, you are incredibly innocent. And I remain incorruptible." He rose.

"Keep on like this, Temu," she said gently, her eyes following him, "if you wish me to fall in love with you instead of your Prince."

He smiled slightly. "You don't know what it is to fall in love. You've never had the experience."

She agreed. "But I was never exposed to your technique before. I think I should like to learn."

In the bedroom, Lynn found a small bag containing clothing for her that must have been brought from the caravan camp for this occasion. She took out what she wanted, and dressing, put on a soft blue-gray frock that fitted her affectionately and flatteringly, and accentuated the blue of her eyes.

When she returned Temu had changed to his army uniform. His glance slid over her with quick approval. He was on his way out. "Eat some breakfast," he said, "and take a nap. I'll try to get back by noon." He let himself out by the living room door and locked it behind him. Lynn drank a cup of tea and prowled about. Chan watched her try the kitchen door. They smiled at each other. She knew it was useless to ask his aid.

For Camel's costlier tobaccos and slower way of burning give you more than mildness—they give you extra mildness and coolness with a flavor that holds its appeal right through the last extra puff. Camels also give you extra smoking per pack (see right).

SMOKERS: SAVE THE COST OF THE STATE CIGARETTE TAX

Smokers who live in communities where certain state cigarette taxes are in effect can save the cost of the tax—and, in some instances, more—through smoking Camels. (See panel at right.) ## Dragons Rally In Final Quarter To Edge Nursery, 14-13

Harold Sedon's Long Run For Score Gives Locals 14-7 Victory

A 50-yard touchdown run by Harold Sedon, dependable Red Jacket halfback, yesterday afternoon gave the locals their fifth win of the season, a 14-7 decision over the strong McKeesport Olympics, and a valid claim to the semi-pro championship of western Pennsylvania.

Sedon's long jaunt came midway in the last quarter when the game apparently was hopelessly deadlocked at 7-7. The Pittsburgh champs were in possession on their own 25 as "Bull" Karois dropped back to pass. The ball sailed into the flat, Sedon snatched it out of the air, and behind perfect blocking tore down the south side of the field, headed for Glade. It goes without saying that Rosequist converted by placement, his tenth point after touchdown of the season.

The game was replete with action from the opening whistle to the final horn as the two husky eleven-sea-sawed back and forth over the Russell Field turf. Both teams were at full strength except for one man each. Art McKeehan being on the sidelines for the Jackets and "Whitey" Fowle being out of action for the Olympics.

CORNELL FACES MAJOR TEST AT HANDS OF BUCKS

New York, Oct. 21.—(AP)—The 1940 college football season is half over, roughly speaking, and for the first time it is possible to approach with some confidence the task of naming those sectional leaders who still are in line for national honors.

The more important teams have followed "form" quite closely for the past week or two in everything but the size of the scores. The list of undefeated and untied major teams still is an imposing one but barring from reversals in this week's program of major games it should take in all the candidates for the mythical national championship.

In this category are Boston College, Georgetown, Cornell, Pennsylvania and Fordham in the East, with such teams as Navy, Penn State, Columbia, Rutgers, Lafayette and Franklin and Marshall still boasting clean slates. In the South are Tennessee, Mississippi and Clemson; Northwestern, Michigan, Minnesota, Notre Dame and Detroit in the Middle West; Texas A&M and Texas in the southwest and Stanford on the Pacific Coast.

Unbeaten but tied once or more are Mississippi State, Kentucky, Southern Methodist, Texas Tech and Southern California. Others still in line for sectional and conference laurels, although beaten by outsiders, include Holy Cross, Villanova, Duquesne, Duke, Washington and Lee, Georgia Tech, Indiana; three Big Six teams, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma; Colorado and Denver in the big seven; Rice, which hasn't played in the Southwest Conference, and Washington.

Here's how the situation shapes up in the east:

Cornell and Pennsylvania, a pair of really fine teams that looked better than ever in their conquests of Syracuse by 33-6 and Princeton by 48-28, respectively, invade the national field for the first time when they meet two of the Big Ten's biggest teams, Cornell plays Ohio State. The Bucks, beaten twice, most recently by Minnesota, don't look quite as strong this season. Penn tackles Michigan's high scoring team which swept up Illinois 28-0 for its fourth straight win.

Georgetown, 45-4 winner over Virginia Tech Friday, meets New York University, 13-7, victim of Holy Cross; and Fordham, 24-12 conqueror of Pitt, meets St. Mary's which beat Loyola of Los Angeles 18-7.

Other important games match Columbia, 19-13 winner over Georgia, and Syracuse; Princeton and Rutgers, which beat Marietta 53-0; Penn State, 34-0 winner over Lehigh, and Temple, Yale, which whipped Dartmouth, 13-7, and Navy, a 19-0 winner over Drake; Harvard, which tied Army 6-6; and Dartmouth; Colgate, beaten 13-0 by Duke in its 50th anniversary game, against Mississippi College; and Villanova, halted by Baylor Saturday night, 7-0, against Detroit at Philadelphia.

Believe It or Not, They're Football Players

These Fordham players huddle on the bench in near-freezing temperature as they watch their teammates wallop the Pittsburgh Panthers 24-12 in the Steel City. Heavy snow fell throughout the game, causing numerous fumbles.

Tamburine Gets Eight Points and Passes To Brown for Touchdown

Uncovering a forward pass act which costarred Joe Tamburine, Bob "Sting" Brown and Paul Zahranski, the Dragon graders Saturday afternoon nosed out one of the strongest teams Franklin High has had in several seasons, 14 to 13.

Tamburine threw a touchdown pass to Brown for the first score, set up the second by a series to Brown and Zahranski, finally plunging over himself for the score, and hit the line for both conversions which changed either defeat or deadlock into victory.

It was superiority in the overhead department that gave the Leidighen their fourth win of the season, plus some very expert punting by Floyd Landers, who set the Nursery back on its heels numerous times with long boots, one of which aided materially in the winning touchdown. Warren had the ball on its own 44 yard line when Landers prodded the leather to a dead stop on the Franklin one yard line, putting the Nursery in a dangerous position from which they barely recovered.

Touchdowns: Brown, Tamburine, Ponzio, Maslak.

Points after Touchdowns: Tamburine 2, Gebhard.

Substitutions: Warren, Graham, Karl, R. D. Johnson, Marasep, North, Christensen, Rydholm, Hoffercker, Franklin, Koepke, Hammerlee, Stewart, Uoff.

Officials: Referee, Clyde Moore, Youngsville; Umpire, Brady, Titusville; Head Linesman, Bauminger, Titusville.

The Jacket line was more than holding its own with the McKeesport wall at the start of the fray and the locals began moving down to the Olympics' outer defense.

Initially, in the second period, the Jackets took to the air and "Lefty" Check's aerial was snatched out of the air by Arnie Koepka on the McKeesport 26, the former Waynesburg star doing a jig through a broken field, tight-ropeing the sideline and going 72 yards for the opening score. Karois placekicked the point.

Check intercepted an Olympic pass to start the march to the Warren score, but the attack bogged down on the Warren 46 on a third down. "Lefty" then fired his long pass which Bob Main snared on the McKeesport 20 and romped over for the score. Rosey tied it up with a placement.

Throughout the period the Jackets were knocking at the front door, but were denied by a few inches. On one occasion, the locals had the ball on the 47, moved up to the 28 on a pass from Check to Tesser, but Koepka stopped the drive with his interception. Again, Ernie Sedon made a 23-yard punt return to put the ball on the 12 yard line. Rosequist got three,

Brown picked up five on two tries but then was stopped right on the goal line to spoil things for the Jackets.

After the Jackets had gone ahead in the last period, the Olympics made a serious attempt to tie things up and nearly succeeded. Karois fired passes of six, eleven, thirteen and twenty yards in rapid succession and Elliott ripped off a couple of good gains to reach the local six-yard line. Elliott got one and the Olympics were penalized five yards for too many times out. Eaker got four back, but Karois, trying to pass, was thrown back 13 yards and the Jackets got the ball, holding it until the end of the game.

Following the game, Coach "Bull" Joe McCune, who was the target of fans' boos throughout the game and who was ejected from the tilt for a brush with Fullback Rosequist, rushed out to interview Referee "Piney" Johnson, but was escorted from the field without damage being done.

While the boys who made the long runs were the big stars, the Red Jacket line deserves special commendation as does Rosequist who got off some fine punts and backed up the line in great shape. Of the 63 yards gained by rushing, Frankie Martinez collected 37, Rosequist 7, Check 12, Brown 5 and Harold Sedon two.

Roy Elliott was the big gun for the invaders, with Karois the triple-threat as well as the punt-returner. In the line, Johnny Belle, end, and Richmondsky were the big guns.

Next Sunday the Jackets risk their undefeated record against the Tonawanda Elldridge Club which twice defeated the locals last year.

Earthen breastworks were used in the battle of New Orleans, contrary to the popular opinion that cotton was used.

NY-PENN RIFLE LEAGUE ENJOYS LOCAL MEETING

Forty members of the five rifle clubs comprising the NY-Penn Rifle League enjoyed a 7 o'clock dinner at the Warren Y. W. C. A. Saturday evening, at which time plans were laid for the approaching league season, and trophies awarded for the past season.

The new schedule calls for two "halves" with a total of ten matches in each, the winners of the respective halves to meet in a shoot-off. Matches begin next week, and will continue through April.

Last year the league winner was the McKean County Rifle Club of Bradford, who won 14 out of 16 matches. They were presented with a handsome pedestal type engraved trophy.

High individual average for the league was taken by Arthur Axelson, also of Bradford, whose consistent work gave him an average of 192.40 out of a possible 200.

Honors for high single score were shared by Julius Schultz of the Irvine Rifle Club, and Jim Elmore of Bradford, with 197 and 200. Each of these men received a silver plated clip with a rifle pendant. Axelson was presented with a silver plated key chain having an engraved medalion tab.

Embossed medal awards were also presented to the members of each participating club who had the highest season average for his club. These awards went to: Arthur Axelson (Bradford) 192.40; Julius Schultz (Irvine Rifle) 191.67; Pat Dorrance (Warren Rifle) 191.38; Harold Hakes (Eldred) 189.40; Leonard Eakin (Titusville) 185.00.

Members of the league are looking forward to another successful season, whose only worry is whether the Warren Armory will be closed. This would leave the two local clubs without a home range and would also make it impossible for Titusville to meet the Bradford and Eldred clubs at the intermediate point of Warren, as they have been accustomed to do.

SPORT SCATTERINGS

by Bill Rice

If Warren's football fans are still a little hoarse and breathless today, there is plenty of excuse. Not once, but twice, local grid partisans were called upon to root local teams home in the final quarter, and they succeeded to no small degree, with the Dragons sucking their collective nose under the wire a point ahead of Franklin and the Red Jackets pulling a Garrison finish to topple the McKeesport Olympics, 14-7. There wasn't much to choose between the two games, for thrills and spectacular jallies, and in each case the opposition made determined, but vain, bids just before the final gun. There was one cardinal difference in the two Warren eleven, however—the Red Jackets were near their peak while the Dragons were far from right. So, we'll just sit back and hope the pros stay in their stride and the Blue and White snap out of it against Bradford.

After four Sundays of Alphonse and Gaston, it seemed like old times to see the Jackets and the Olympics wrangling for every inch of ground, and the huddle of spectators and players in the middle of the field after the game was a flash-back to former days. Incidentally, what was eating Coach "Bull" Joe McCune was not his being ejected from the game, but the five-yard penalty assessed against the Olympics down near the goal line. McCune claimed it was a substitution time-out, and the last we saw of the argument he was being given a short course in the rules by Referee Johnson. When the Olympics and the Jackets meet you can generally figure on a little "color," but things seemed to be moving along nicely until one of the visitors took what seemed to be a useless pass at diminutive "Lefty" Check, and then the lid came off. Anyway, no one was hurt, everyone had a lot of fun and we haven't met a fan who was clamoring for his money back. Although the McKeesport eleven tried to load up for the Jackets, they succeeded only partially, for "Whitey" Fowle was lost in the shuffle yesterday morning. Johnny Belle was on deck, however, with Hodder and Elliott and played a lot of football.

This football is a screwy game. If you ever stopped to guess winners by comparative scores you'd end up in a padded cell or behind the eight ball, or both. Take Franklin and Warren, for instance. Strong Vincent started out by bowling over the Dragons 26 to 0; Eric Tech beats Vincent, 19 to 6; Meadville takes Tech, 14 to 7, and along comes Franklin and trims Meadville, 6 to 0. All right! That brought Franklin into Warren Saturday, 50 points better than the Dragons on the basis of comparative scores. But worse than that: Kane edges the Leidighen, 6 to 0, and Corry, 7 to 0. But Franklin walloped the Beavers, 29-13. So, from here in we'll leave that dog bone right where it belongs—in the bottom drawer under the almanac. That game in Bradford Friday night ought to be a bear-cat, though because Bradford beat Oil City—but, there we go again!

October 21, 1920.—That Ben Johnson is definitely out as a leader in baseball seems to be a foregone conclusion, with his refusal to join the eleven magnates who want baseball cleaned up once and for all. The magnates have the upper hand for they control three-fourths of the capital investment, and they are bound that there is going to be a commissioner or a commission appointed to see that the 1919 scandal is not repeated.

Joe Goldstein, the legal adviser for the team, lent dignity to the match by appearing with new shoes and mineralite.

CLARION SCORES EARLY TO STOP YOUNGVILLE HI

Youngsville High, handicapped by the loss of Howard Thompson and Bill Howe from its backfield and the injury to Harold Thompson early in the first quarter, put up a good scrap down at Clarion Saturday but were taken into camp, 43-6.

Clarion scored two touchdowns in the first period and held the Eagles scoreless until the last quarter when the Beckmen pushed over their lone touchdown. The Red and White nearly crossed the line again in the same quarter, but their touchdown thrust was stopped near the goal line.

Next Saturday Elmorton will play Youngsville at the Forge Field, Irvine.

REDSKINS CHALK UP ANOTHER TO RETAIN BIG LEAD

Chicago, Oct. 21. (AP)—The Washington Redskins and Chicago Bears, employing widely divergent offensive methods, are headed in the same general direction—a spot in the playoff for the national professional football championship.

The Redskins, only undefeated and untied team in the National League, utilized a deadly air attack again Sunday to chalk up their fifth triumph while the Bears, a ponderous and devastating rushing eleven, won their fourth decision in five starts to take over first place in the western division.

Sammy Baugh passed the Philadelphia Eagles silly, tossing three touchdown heaves as Washington won, 34 to 17. Baugh connected for 18 of 24 aerials for 258 yards. The other passers completed two out of three others, boosting the total yardage in the air of 282.

The Bears broke loose in the final periods to carve out a 16 to 7 victory over Brooklyn while Patsy Clark's rejuvenated Detroit Lions dropped Green Bay's defending champions back of the Bears with a resounding 23 to 14 victory.

The New York Giants, defending titleholders in the eastern division, downed Pittsburgh, 12 to 0, on a touchdown, point after field goal and safety. Parker Hall regained his 1939 form Sunday and paced the Cleveland Rams to a 26 to 14 decision over the Chicago Cardinals.

The only thing colder than the weather at the start of the game was the Blue and White grid machine, as Franklin, with Ponzio and Maslak doing most of the carrying, marched to its first touchdown from its own 35. The Nursery attack bogged down within the 15 yard line where the Dragon line went through to halt them twice, but an offside penalty was assessed against the locals and Ponzio plunged over from the two yard line to open the scoring. Gebhard's placekick was wide, but again Warren was overly anxious, and the Jackets' second attempt soared squarely between the bars.

The Dragons started a march of their own before the period ended, but Landers' fumble was recovered by Franklin. The Nursery made its first try through the air and Landers redeemed himself by intercepting, and the Dragons were on the move. With Zahranski and Graham gaining most of the ground, the locals moved to the 32 yard line for a first down. Graham picked up five, Zahranski and Tamburine one. Joe then faded back and tossed a pass which Brown clutched 24 yards away, in the end zone. Joe hit the line to tie the score at 7-7.

For a time in the second half it appeared that the Dragons were on the march once more, but Landers again bobbled and Franklin recovered on the Warren 45. Ponzio chucked a 27-yard pass to Harris on the 17, picked up 12 more to the five, and after two tries, Maslak went over for the touchdown. Ponzio failed to convert as the center of the line surged have been made by regular governmental investigating agencies concerning alleged violations of the federal laws pertaining to election matters in certain counties.

In directing the jury to make the investigation, Judge Kirkpatrick cautioned its members not to "allow yourselves to be made the means of accusing innocent persons or promoting selfish interests of one side or another of a political group."

Representatives of the U. S. senate campaign investigation committee, headed by Senator Guy M. Gillette (D-Iowa) have been at work in Philadelphia for three weeks.

Networks Plan For Election Returns

New York, Oct. 21.—(P)—With election day drawing near, the three networks are in the throes of preparation for what they plan to do in the way of broadcasting about the returns the night of November 5.

In a nutshell, returns will have the right of way on the air, sponsored and other programs being so arranged that they can be interrupted at will.

Besides the actual returns, there will be plenty of commentators available to talk about trends and things. These voices will be backed by special staffs whose job it will be to assemble the data gathered by the Associated Press and other news services for condensation into broadcast material.

Also it is hoped to have the successful candidate on the air as soon as definite results are known.

At the other end of the state and on the same night, Congressman Joseph W. Martin, Jr., Republican national chairman, will address a "no third term day" rally in Pittsburgh.

A prelude to the appearances of the major parties' top ranking candidates will be tomorrow's court proceedings in the prohibition party's fight to have the names of its presidential and vice presidential candidates placed before Pennsylvania voters.

Jay Cooke, Republican nominee for U. S. senator; Frederick T. Gelder, for auditor general, and James F. Malone, Jr., for state treasurer, arranged their campaign itinerary so as to be able to board Willie's special train at Binghamton, N. Y., on Friday, and ride with him through the anthracite region.

Nazi sources contended the "terror" aspect of the raids on Berlin was proved by an assertion that only residential sections were struck.

Commercial aviation was grounded. Kane, usually the state's "ice-box," recorded 22. A record of 57 years standing was broken at Allentown, where the temperature dropped to 26. Blair county was covered with an inch of snow.

Sir Ronald Campbell, British minister to Yugoslavia, went to Istanbul today, presumably to participate in a conference with the British ambassador to Turkey and the British ministers to Bulgaria and Greece. "some confusion" in Philadelphia had been ironed out.

Dr. William Mather Lewis, state director of selective service, conferred with Philadelphia authorities over the weekend.

scheduled on that date: 9 to 10 p. m., November 2, for the Cleveland speech; and 10 to 12 p. m., November 4.

Originally, the secretary explained, the president intended to speak on October 30 in Constitution Hall in Washington. But Chairman Edward J. Flynn and his associates on the Democratic national committee suggested he make an address in Baltimore.

Apparently, Early continued, they did not know the only available and sizeable auditorium in Baltimore had been leased by the Republicans for that night. While Mr. Roosevelt had said he might talk in Baltimore, since then, Early said, Flynn and others of the national committee had urged him to follow a tradition begun in 1932 of making campaign addresses at the Brooklyn Academy of Music.

The reasons that have kept the chief executive close to the national capital in the last few months, Early said, are as compelling today as they were when Mr. Roosevelt announced he did not wish to get farther than an overnight trip from Washington.

Mr. Roosevelt had itineraries for train and automobile trips to plan and an address to draft before his appearance Wednesday night in Philadelphia's convention hall.

There in the auditorium where the Democratic national convention approved his second nomination in 1936, he will deliver the first of five speeches in which he said he would tell the American people about a systematic and deliberate "program of falsification of fact by the opposition."

ALEXANDER WARNS AGAINST STALEMATE

London, Oct. 21. (P)—"We have to carry this fight into the enemy's fields," A. V. Alexander, first lord of the admiralty, declared today in a speech warning against acceptance of a stalemate.

"We are daily conveying our ships, our troops and our supplies to theaters of war in which the victory will be driven home," Alexander continued.

A bombing plane with a range of 6000 miles with a full load of bombs would cost about $300,000 in $100,000 each. Military officials say the United States should have 2000 or 3000 for this type plane.

It costs the government about $15,000 to train a single army or navy pilot.

U. S., Canada Co-operate on Joint Defense Projects

United in the cause of American defense, the U. S. and Canada are cooperating on two projects at opposite ends of the continent. Study of the $25,000,000 Alaskan highway by the U. S.-Canada defense board has resulted in predictions that work on the project will start by spring. It is regarded as an important link. New moves to harness the power of the St. Lawrence for defense factories in both nations have spurred interest in completion of the widening of the waterway to permit largest ocean vessels to reach Great Lakes.

POLITICAL FORUM

Articles appearing in this department are furnished by representatives of the respective parties in Warren county and are not intended to reflect the views or opinions of the publisher.

REPUBLICAN

The anti-third term tradition has stood as a means to prevent political machines from perpetuating themselves in office. The principle of the anti-third term tradition underlies our whole system of government. In a majority of the constitutions of the separate states the principle is embodied in the provision which limits the eligibility of governors for re-election. The men and women who wrote and ratified these state constitutions wanted to put brakes on political machines using office to hold office. They wanted to be sure that candidates for the highest offices were running as individuals, without the prestige, power, plunder and pay of an incumbent in office to reflect themselves. They wanted to prevent the use of the public treasury as a campaign chest.

Today for the first time in our history there are over one million employees of the executive branch of the government together with millions of dependents, a large percentage of whom have pecuniary interest in the third term. For example, Secretary Ickes.

Today we have the immense power of the radio and the immense power of the executive over the radio in the control exerted by the Federal Communications Commission. We have ones of propaganda constantly pouring forth from scores of press agents in the executive departments. We are spending or appropriating this year fourteen billion dollars in government contracts, doles and subsidies. Here, in grim reality, is the situation foreseen by our early president who established the anti-third term tradition as a corollary to the constitution.

The Constitution of the United States provides for a government by the consent of the governed. And that must be a free and not a purchased consent. A free election between candidates on an equal footing is democracy; the other is Tammany, Tweed, Hague, Guffey, Huey Long, Pendergast, Kelly-Nash. The power of the incumbent in office is in large part the power of public patronage and executive favor. The secret ballot, the Hatch Acts and the no-third term principle are all cut from the same important cloth.

And on the other side of the picture, the constant demands for blank checks to continue the flood of executive spending, the jealous holding of all "emergency" power, the extension of control at every opportunity, the impatience with any criticism from press or personal associates; all these, too, are out from one important piece. They are the pattern of dictatorship that seeks to fasten itself upon a weakened and boss-ridden America.

Unless the American people emphatically reassert next November the unwritten law of 150 years, we shall have passed the last milepost on the road to absolute government. Let this law, written or unwritten, be broken by any president, and what restraint of freedom will you then put upon him, or he upon himself? Look abroad, where the dykes have broken.

DEMOCRAT

Roosevelt Youth Day is to be observed in hundreds of Pennsylvania cities and towns on next Wednesday, October 23, with parades and young people's rallies, according to plans that have been made by the Young Democratic Clubs of Pennsylvania.

Joseph J. Yosko, of Bethlehem, state president of the Young Democrats, said today that President Roosevelt's political speech to be given that evening as a climax to the state-wide observance of the occasion, will be heard by hundreds of thousands of young people in the state at meetings which are now being arranged.

In addition to the meetings being arranged by the affiliated clubs of the Young Democrats, rallies are to be held in every county by the Roosevelt First Voters Clubs, and on every college campus in Pennsylvania the Roosevelt College Clubs are to stage parades and conduct meetings at which the President's speech will be heard over the radio.

"Throughout Pennsylvania today plans are being made by the Young Democratic Clubs, the Roosevelt First Voters Clubs and the Roosevelt College Clubs for great demonstrations to precede the broadcasting of the President's speech," said Yosko. "Cooperating with these clubs are the Democratic county chairmen, state committeemen and the members of their organizations. We believe that these meetings of young people next Wednesday evening will be the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in the state on a single evening to pay honor and tribute to any living American."

"Young Democratic Clubs and Roosevelt First Voters Clubs are functioning actively in every community, and there is great enthusiasm reported on the campus of every Pennsylvania college for President Roosevelt's re-election as the result of the activities of the Roosevelt College Clubs. Our canvass of the state indicates that a great majority of the young people not only favor Roosevelt's re-election, but are actively working for it. Recent meetings of the Young Democrats held in every section of the state show a tremendous interest in Democratic success in Pennsylvania this year, and the young voters want to have a definite part in winning this election."
